Re: Capgemini U.S. LLC v. EC Manage, Inc., 10 Civ. 2486 (GBD)

Dear Judge Daniels:

We represent plaintiffs Capgemini U.S. LLC and Capgemini Applications Services LLC (collectively, "Capgemini") in the above-referenced breach of contract action against defendants EC Manage, Inc. and TPX Global Corporation (collectively, "Defendants"). Defendants are in default. Capgemini is proceeding with a motion for a default judgment but needs to work through some damages issues before the motion is submitted.

Accordingly, we respectfully request that the pretrial conference currently scheduled for July 29, 2010 be adjourned. We also respectfully request that the conference be adjourned because I am lead counsel and I am scheduled to be away on vacation that day. We ask that the conference be rescheduled for August 19 or September 2, 2010 so that we have time to finalize and submit the motion for default judgment.

Respectfully submitted,

Gerald S. Silver
